My Dear Child

If you cannot obtain all the interest that is due to you from ~~the bank~~ ~~the bank~~ procure the most you can, but settle the business, provided you do not pay more for the property than it's worth; - Should the difference between the purchase money, and the debt and interest be allowed you, exceed the sum due to me ^{from} ~~the bank~~ the -putate that in such case the excess be discounted on ~~your~~ ~~your~~ bond to me -

The beaver was given to Mr?
John W. Yates, what is due to Mr?

gates to part with him I know not - I am informed he is capable and sold and my Gardiner told me that he had your directions to look out for a gardener, and requested a reply of introduction to you -

Your sister Kempelauer is so very much better that I think she is now out of danger, Catherine is well and all the rest of the family. - My Philip who is really an amiable child progresses very handsomely in his Education, he joins us in love to you, his Mother & all with many adieu yours most affly. Ph. Schuyler
