Dear Sir

You will please with all possible dispatch

To send up ^{all the} ~~as many~~ men ~~from~~ ^{that are at} You & Colonel Wyntkops Regiment ^{from} Albany & Stillwater or ~~as can be spared out of the Battalions~~ ^{in the County of Albany} ~~except those in the town~~ ^{except those in the town} to keep the Battalions fully manned; 1 Sub: 1 Strj: 2 Corps:
and 21 privates to join Lt Van Vleet at Saratoga and to remain ^{doing duty with his party} ~~there~~ until further orders, the Lieut. ^{to remain at} number ~~at~~ Fort Edward, and the remainder to move on to this place, ~~with~~ Colonels Cortlandt and Gansevoort to come up with them. If possible ^{if possible to} ~~can be procured~~ At Albany ~~send~~ for their baggage to ~~send~~ ^{if possible} expedite their march, to this place where I wish they should arrive the soonest possible, —

Yours Truly

J. Schuyler

As neither Col. Cortlandt or Col. Gansevoort will go beyond this place at least not for some time, they need not be detained by much baggage — Pray send up tents with them if possible

To Colo. Schuyler Three half a Ton of Powder and one Ton of Ball at Albany to arm the militia in case of need
