

Received 14th
7th

Answered 23rd 7th 1876.

London.

Bedford House,

Tavistock Square

Jan 29th

My dear Miss

Just a line to say that I got your letters and articles which are a great comfort to me.

We are all well
and are shortly

coming from our Sud Cop - Thanks
to my friends for the in my own religion.
which you know.
and to the comforting philosophy that it invariably brings
I have taught myself the hard lesson that it is for the best.

The pictures in about young sent just as little they should and they are happiness make every thing else. but you shall leave them.
Cup demands them

but the Lendovers in a soft-place. of course the Critics are clamouring for a new part, but the public seem to be satisfied with the old Dutchman so I shall not change - the House if filled to its capacity might