The Brigadier General expects that the Commandants of Regiments will order their men to be punctual and that the Line will be formed at ten O'clock when the Long Roll will be beat and every Person who is not embodied will be reported to as an Absentee; This discipline the Brigadier General is determined to enforce - He willing & obedient soldier but those who merely attend the Regimental Redegown to and do not embody themselves.

The ~~but~~ only to ensure the fines and penalties inflicted upon defaulters, ~~to ensure the law until the~~ to thereby which this discipline is introduced - At a time when the Nation is at war with a powerful enemy it is essential that the Brigade should be so organized ~~to~~ ~~be~~ that should the enemy think proper to invade the Country that they may be always ready to meet him on the frontier & show that they are descendants of a race which has hitherto distinguished themselves for its valor & manly -
