

State of New York Is:

We the Subscribers being the joint Committee Appointed by the Senate and Assembly pursuant to the Act entitled "An Act for Electing Representatives for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America" passed the 18th of December 1792) having Met at the Office of the Secretary of this State in the City of New York on the Second Tuesday of January instant for the purpose of canvassing and Estimating the Votes taken at the last General Election for Representatives for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America did there on that day and on the Nine next succeeding days Sunday excepted canvass and Estimate the Votes taken at the said last Election in this State for such Representatives as aforesaid and we do upon the said canvass and Estimate Determine and Declare and hereby Certify that Edward Livingston was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the District Comprehending the City and County of New York Chosen a Representative in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America And that Jonathan N. Havens was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the District Comprehending the Counties of Suffolk Kings and Queens Chosen a Representative in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America, And that Philip Van Cortlandt was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the District Comprehending the Counties of Westchester and Richmond Chosen a Representative in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America And that Lucas Elmendorph was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the District Comprehending the Counties of Orange and Ulster Chosen a Representative in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America, And that David Brooks was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the District Comprehending the County of Dutchess Chosen a Representative in the House of Representatives of the Congress

(of)

Certificate of Canvass 1797. Representative to Congress

No 25

52

State of New York &c. We the Subscribers being the joint Committee appointed by the Senate and Assembly pursuant to the Act intitled "An Act for electing Representatives for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. passed the 20th day of March 1797" having met at the Office of the Secretary of this State in the City of New York on the fourteenth day of June Inst. - for the purpose of canvassing and estimating the Votes taken at the last general Election for Representatives for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. Did there on that day, and the six next succeeding days (Sunday excepted) canvass and estimate the Votes taken at the said last Election in this State for such Representatives as aforesaid. And we do upon the said canvass and Estimate determine and declare and hereby certify. That Jonathan N. Havens was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the first District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that Edward Livingston was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the second District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that Philip Van Cortlandt. was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the third District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that Lucas Demondorpe - was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the fourth District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that Theodorus Bailey was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the fifth District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that John Bird was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the sixth District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that John Thompson was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the seventh District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that Henry Glen was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the eighth District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. And that Jonas Platt. was by the greatest number of Votes at the said last Election in the ninth District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America.

of America. And that William Cooper was by the greatest number of votes at the said last Election in the tenth District of this State chosen a Representative for this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States of America. — Given under our Hand, at the said Office of the Secretary of this State at New York the twentieth day of June in the twenty second year of the Independence of this State, and in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight. —

Sam^l Mayors

Minas Bowman

Henry Wmille

~~Wm. D.~~

~~Wm. D.~~

Wm. Dearfall

John Thompson

Joshua Dewey

John Strong

Sam^l Haight

James Gordon

Abm. Arndt

Anthony Ten Eyck

Ja^s. G. Graham