

Dear Sir

Fish kills June 4th 1785. —

I have just time to acknowledge your favours of yesterday agreeable to which I have entered the agreements made with Ellis and Capt. Lilly.

inclosed is a letter for Dykeman, who I hope will be able to discharge his rent; as the sum is considerable if he be suffered to run in arrears there may be some difficulty in obtaining payment.

Such rents as you may receive I judge it advisable to remit to Mr. Beckman, for the support of Philip, who I am happy to find he has placed with a person of a good repute in the city. With respects of love the family to Mrs. Miss Cotland. I am with Esteem Yrs. Yours most humbly
Sam^l Hopland

To

Mr. John: Van Cortland Esq.

Sir

I Rec^d your fav^r by Beckman who I detain^d him In order to see Mr Money who was gone to New York and Returned yesterday who now accompanies ^{him} Beckman up and will be able to give you all the Information and ^{if} assistance that day In his power. He takes with him the Certificates and other paper Relative to the points, Mr Money thinks it best to go to Coll Barber again to know what further is to be done. I shall be away ready and willing to do Every thing that shall be advisable for the benefit of the Estate.
