

Dear Theodorus

Your Grand Mama desires you to send her 3 good thick Blankets fit for Servants such as you shall think that will suite them for covering
6 coveralls for the same use
3 Jackets for — — — <sup>20</sup> <sup>20</sup> of the largest sort you need not for first send the bag Cloth as I dont as yet see a prospect of getting Cockweat, the farmers in general <sup>will</sup> grind it as they say, when there is water, which is Verry
Scarce at present, Only one p<sup>r</sup> of Stones grind now

James Staynes has sold all his Cooper
Stuff and Carried it to <sup>hill</sup> ~~hills~~, he is to move of
I am Told the next week; he has brought in the mill I think 120 bbl. <sup>p<sup>r</sup></sup>haps more, sometime ago, I should be glad to have your acc<sup>t</sup> to what I might Regulate according to

The General left Albany the 30th of Octo<sup>r</sup> by Water
I suppose he is now in New York, Tell your bro<sup>r</sup>
Cortlandt I Expect to hear from him how the Suite is like to go on I have heard Mr Hamilton is gone down, I think he should be employed, but
Mr. Munroe will do the need full Own Love to you and all friends. Does the baby grow finely

Am. Your Loving G. Father

Nov<sup>r</sup> 3<sup>d</sup> 1801

Pierre Van Cortlandt

Jan 20th 25
 60
 50
 50
 30
 1
 H. S. Lea

Sum Jan 20th 1807
 1807

Letter
 1807

1807

8000
 1400
 140
 740
 770

993
 936
 1040
 1996
 1306
 1865

206
 453
 659
 5
 4550

3755
 1050
 2789
 2789
 1050
 1050

4280
 170
 3510
 245
 3755
 1040

1735
 1040
 1040
 841

4500
 1000
 500
 8500

350
 2050

906
 30

1950
 3281
 1282
 242
 36
 1040

4280
 170
 3510
 245
 3755
 1040