Dear Sir,

I avail myself now of the kind offer you made some time ago to procure me through Mr. Willinck's house in Amsterdam some information particularly respecting my worthy relation Mr. J. J. Elsevier formerly Burgemaster of Rotterdam, and Mr. G. B. Schabbe, they act as my Agents, but I have not heard of them in five years - they had then a sum of money of mine in hands which they were requested to pay to Messrs Willinck or Staphorst for Account of the United States - I should be glad if Mr. Willinck would have the goodness to make some enquiries respecting it, and would let me know the result, and also whether he would take charge of some letters for Holland please excuse the trouble I give you, and accept my best respects
