No. 39 Broadway, N.Y.

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of 21st March at hand and contents noted. You do not explain at all the reason why you built the north end of the house on a rock shelving towards and under the house, the fact that you were not consulted as to grading has nothing to do with the case; however, it is perhaps true that for the expense and trouble your errors caused, I have no redress, and will therefore have to bear it. I note that you are satisfied with your actions throughout as my agent, and am

Yours truly,
