

Town of Cortland August 23. 1802

Regimental Orders

The Regiment commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Cierre van Cortlandt Junr. is by Brigade orders directed to parade for Annual Review and Inspection on Wednesday the eighth day of September next at York Town at Ten O'clock in the forenoon near the Crumpond meeting House. Previous to which Regimental Parade the Commandant of the Regiment directs the Commandant of Companies to order their respective Companies to Undeguous for the purpose of training, disciplining and improving in martial Exercise at the times and places herein designated - viz

Captain Phyllis Company to Undeguous at or near the Crumpond meeting House in the Town of York Town on Friday the third day of September at Ten O'clock in the forenoon

Captain Horton's Company to Undeguous at or near the House of Nathaniel Sand in the Town of Cortlandt on Friday the third day of September next at Ten O'clock in the forenoon.

Captain Henry Lents Company to Undeguous at or near the House of David Stanley Junr. in the Town of Cortlandt on Saturday the fourth day of September next at Ten O'clock in the forenoon -

Captain John Lents Company to Undeguous at or near the House of Nathaniel Levinep in the said Town of Cortlandt on Saturday the fourth day of September next at Ten O'clock in the forenoon -

Captain Wards Company to Undeguous at or near his own House in the Town of Mount Pleasant on Saturday the fourth day of September next at Ten O'clock in the forenoon

Captain Montross's Company to Undeguous at or near the House of Nathaniel ^{overathan} Merri in the Town of York Town on Saturday the fourth day of September next at Ten O'clock in the forenoon -

Captain Wright's Company to Undeguous at the House of Abijah Whitney in the Town of York Town on Friday the third day of September next at Ten O'clock in the forenoon

Captain Jacob Lents Company to rendezvous at ^{or near} the House of Benjamin Green in the Town of Stephen Town on Friday the Third Day of September next at Ten O'clock in the forenoon
Captain Birchalls Light Infantry Company will rendezvous at or near the House of David Stanley Esq. in the Town of Cortlandt on Monday the thirtieth Day of August next at One O'clock in the afternoon -

Brigadier General Delavan has directed in Brigade orders that the Company lately commanded by Captain Jacob Montrop (being for from equal in point of numbers to the Adjacent Company and for the better accommodation of the militia) shall be bounded by the following line which is to control the before mentioned Companies in future: Nathaniel Montrop's Company running with Croton River East so far as to take in Joseph Montrop's farm, thence West to comprehend William Williams farm, Nathaniel Montrop's to the middle line between Nathaniel Wright's & said Nathaniel Montrop Land, thence South to Crompond Road, thence West so as to include all the men on the South of said Road across taking in Isaac Underhills farm, thence South West taking in the farm formerly belonging to Richard Davenport also the farm of Caleb Carpenter the farm of John Griffin the farm of John Griffin Esq. the farm of Gregory the farm of John Tomkins Esq. & that of John Tomkins & so to extend to Captain Horton's Company, comprehending all the South side of the said Road. -

By a late Act of the Legislature the Brigade Inspectors are in future to review and inspect the militia composing the different Brigades. Also the same Act authorizes an augmentation of Time in Case of Delinquency and the Commanding Officers are to take care that the said Law is strictly complied with -

The Commander in Chief has made it the indispensable Duty of the Brigade Inspectors in their return to the Adjutant General to note the Regiments and Companies which have made the most soldierly appearance on parade in order that some provision may be made to reward their military merit -

Town of Cortlandt Aug 23. 1812

The Commandant of the Regiment directs that Major Caudling attends the respective Company Parades of Captains John Lents, Henry Lents, Horton, Hyatts & Bird's Companies And that Major Montrop attend the respective Company Parades of Captains Ward, Wright's, Montrop's and Jacob Lents Companies -

The Commandant of the Regiment enjoins it upon the Commandant of Companies to exert themselves that their respective Companies are properly and legally equipped, and directs that they order their respective Companies to be and rendezvous at York Town the eighth Day of September next near the Crompond meeting House at Ten O'clock in the forenoon for the annual Review and Inspection - And he further directs the Field & Staff Officers punctually to attend on the Day of Review And that the Quarter Master provide a field as near the Crompond meeting House in York Town as may be, in which the Regiment may be reviewed.

The Commandant recommends to the Commandants of Companies to have the Act passed at the last Session of the Legislature Entitled "An Act to amend the Act entitled An Act to Organize the militia of this State read to their respective Companies at every Company rendezvous -

The Commandant directs the Adjutant of the Regiment to enter these Orders in his Orderly Book & to furnish the ^{Respective} ~~different~~ Commandants of Companies with a copy -

John Cortlandt Esq.
Lieut. Col. Comdr

Regimental Orders
Aug 23^d - 1802 -