

Memorandum of an agreement made & intended this 19th day of August 1834. between John Miller of Cortlandt town, of one part, & Isaac Haight of the village Peechmill of the other part. Witnesseth. The said Miller doth hereby agree with the said Haight, to sell unto him the said Haight, a certain House & Lot of Ground in the village of Peechmill, & at present occupied by Asa Derris, for the sum of One hundred & seven Dollars, to be paid ~~paid~~ unto the said Miller on the first day of May next, & that in the said Miller, will (at the expense of said Haight) on the 1st day of May next, on receiving from said Haight, the sum aforesaid, will execute to the said Haight, a proper conveyance free & clear from all encumbrances, which conveyance shall contain the general warranty & the usual full covenants, & the said Haight agrees with the said Miller, that he the said Haight shall & will on the said 1st day of May next & on the execution of said conveyance, pay unto the said Miller the said sum of One hundred & seven Dollars aforesaid, & it is further agreed between the parties as follows. That in case of the failure, the parties bind themselves each unto the other in the sum of Seventy dollars, which they hereby consent to fix & liquidate as the amount of damages to be paid by the failing party, for his nonperformance

In witness whereof the parties have hereunto set their hands & seals the day & year aforesaid in presence of

John Miller

Curran & Co. Hand

Isaac Haight

the same as the one in the other volume of the same series. The only difference is in the title. The title of the first volume is "The History of the County of Gloucester" and the title of the second volume is "The History of the County of Gloucester, from the Norman Conquest to the Present Time". The first volume is a general history of the county, and the second volume is a more particular history of the county, from the Norman Conquest to the present time. The first volume is written by John Smith, and the second volume is written by John Smith.

To the Honble
The Lord High
Treasurer of the Treasury

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the above mentioned subject. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.