

John Tyler,

President of the United States of America.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Know Ye, that reposing special trust and confidence in the integrity, prudence and abilities of Washington Irving, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States at the Court of Her Majesty Donna Isabel 2nd, I have invested him with full and all manner of power, for and in the name of the United States, to meet and confer with any person or persons furnished with like powers on the part of Her said Majesty, and with him or them

To negotiate

to negotiate and conclude a Convention or Conventions, Treaty or Treaties, of and con-cerning the Commerce and navigation of the two Countries; and of all matters and Subjects connected therewith which may be interesting to the two Nations; and to con-clude and sign a Treaty or Treaties, Con-vention or Conventions, touching the pre-mises, transmitting the same to the Presi-dent of the United States for his final ratification by and with the advice and Consent of the Senate of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my

my hand at the City of Washington,

The Twenty-second day of March A.D. One Thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the Sixty-Sixth.

John Tyler

By the President:

David Wadsworth
Secretary of State.
