Parkville Ap^l 9th 1832

I arrived at this place Yesterday with an intention to set out Fruit Trees &c and try and make this place in some measure fit and Desent for the Reception of my P^r...

I have not Rec^d a single line from you since you left this - do give me that pleasure soon as possible, let it be a Letter of Ellevation, of Comfort, You know the Subject, they will find me at this place for One Month to come -

I will beg you (if to be spared) Linnen enough for 3 Shirts I really am in Sufferance for the want of them likewise a Gimmy Statt as the One I have is Rasca-ly, The hatt I mean to pay you for, do try your possibles, the time's drawing nigh that - how will your Brother appear with a poor Statt -
The things I carry sent for by Hazard are not Come up I wish You would make enquiry in the matter for Jarry, that is ^{where} ~~where~~ the goods was sent and in whose care deposited —

Your Soldier waiting Only have time to tell You I remain Yours as ever &c &c
