

New York June 3rd 1834

Dear Will -

I have just understood that young Henry Robinson starts today to take passage at Boston for Canton and as I fear you will be disappointed if you do not have a line I write ~~through~~ I am just announcing a long letter to send you by the ship which ships tomorrow and in that I will give you all the news -

Robinson I believe is to remain out if he can get a situation he is a good natured fellow I believe but spoiled by being rather good looking - treat him kindly whether you like him or not for the sake of his family and be of any service to him as you power

I have collected a number of the 'Harriet' and send them by the morning - with this I send the last number - hereafter you shall receive a regular paper - Father has gone to Troy with Aunt Pats - all well - I am looking for a letter from you every day, I hope in better health - give love to all - my dear love in great haste
Your affectionate friend
