My dear E.

As I hope and expect that our dear girls are enjoying themselves in New York when their letters arrive, I enclose you one for Molly - I wrote you a long letter some days since by this same packet, and have not heard from home in the interval. I am not a little impatient as you will see to hear of your movements -

For myself I have not led so quiet a life for a long time, and I believe if I were now suddenly transported to New York, I should be bewildered with the confusion and bustle around me. When the Masked Balls begin in about ten days the fun as the Jacksons said commences in good earnest and the population remains riot during the rest of the carnival - There is to be shortly a splendid 'bal Costume' for which divers swarthy Spaniards are preparing to figure as Scotchmen! in bare legs &c. What an exhibit it will be. It has been decided among the diplomatic personages that is 'infra dig' for them to appear in any other character, so we shall be saved the trouble of this masquerading.

I saw in a paper the other day the death of Mr. Robinson at Newark: Is this your old friend & assistant the Sheriff?

Commend me to all my old cronies at the Club and elsewhere - My best love to Aunt Eliza & Robert.

Edw. Schuyler Esq.
New York.

Yours ever.
