

London Feb^y 10.th 1802.

Sir,

Immediately after the receipt of your letter, I took measures to enquire of the widow of the late Judge Jones concerning the marriage contract to which you refer. Mrs Jones remembers to have heard of the Paper, but has no knowledge that it was ever in her husband's possession; and thinks it more likely, that it went ^{with her father's Papers} into the hands of her deceased Brother James Delancey. Upon this suggestion I have written to the Executors of James Delancey for the purpose of ascertaining whether the contract can be found among his Papers, as yet I have not received any answer, as soon as this shall be the case I will not fail to apprise you of it —

With great respect
I have the honour to be
Sir
