

In Pursuit of
Wm Bell

State of New York

Westchester County

I J. Bell remembered that on the 26th day of August 1812 before me William Bell one of the Judges of Westchester County
- on whom came Sally Gallup the wife of Samuel P. Gallup and acknowledged she executed the above written instrument as her free act and deed for the uses & purposes therein mentioned The said Sally being by me examined & separated and apart from her said husband confessed she executed the same of her own free will and accord without fear threats or constraint of her said husband. The said Sally being a person well known to me and being identified to me on the oath of Ebenezer Bitt to be the wife of the said Samuel P. and the same person formerly married & described. The proof being to me satisfactory evidence of the legal execution thereof and in examining said instrument and finding the other allegations true & true before the execution the court allow it to be recorded

Wm Bell

Sally Gallup

To Ebenezer Bell

Assignment of the right of Dow.

Ms. A. 1. 1. 1.