

+

I desire to know the names and the order and confusion

SHR I saw no objection but what arose from the disorder of order, celebrating intelligence & the independence and presumption of and unreasonably who were involved with no authority in intruding themselves on matters above and out of their sphere - that the Council on the first instance had been ~~without~~ my authority contrary to my authority contrary to my order & contrary to my wish. I read & read off at the head of the troops on the left had gone off without authority by that the following track of the troops on the right could be ascribed to no reason that I could decree unless referring of some facts are the same moderately but necessarily from the kind of announcement had been considered are equal for a full retreat. I said I think that had I remained

The plans of Lee had been deeply considered by the rebuke which Washington had given him on the field of battle. On the following morning June 29. We addressed the plans letter of the date July 11 to the Command in chief. I enclose the following as extracts.

The following is Washington's reply to the Lee Report as follows.

Subsequently Lee demanded a court martial which was granted him & the following charges advanced against him.

SHR

Handwritten text, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs.

Handwritten text, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs.