

Sam Verplanck
Letter

To

Mr. Sampson Dykeman

Mayor of Cortland

Sir.

As the Executors of Mr. Verplanck have placed his Son Philip in Town, at a considerable expence, there will be a necessity for your being punctual in the discharge of your rent. I shall therefore expect to hear that it has been paid to the order of Governor Cortland. — Our chief dependance is upon the rent of the Point, for which reason I now you will yet yourself to oblige.

Sir. Your Most humble Servt

Sam. Verplanck

Rich hills N. Y. 4 June. 1785.

Mr. Sampson Dykeman

