

Franklin Street,
September 24, 1844.

Mr. and Dear Sir:

It gives me much pleasure to send you the foregoing, and welcome you to my discourse.

I will thank you or Mr. Dennison to have sent to the several churches
on Sunday next the following notice:

There will be divine service this evening in St. Paul's Chapel, to commence at 7 o'clock, when the Rev. Horatio Southgate, Missionary to Constantinople, will deliver a discourse on the subject of that mission.
A collection will be made in aid of the mission.

I will thank you to read the Lesson on the above occasion, selecting for yourself, and purpose asking the children to read prayers.

Yours very truly,

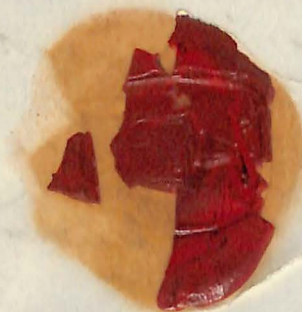

Henry J. Anderson.

Mr. Pierre P. Irving.

The Rev.

Pierre P. Irving.

Brooklyn.

The Rev. Pierre P. Irving, a Presbyterian of the Diocese of Western New York, having laid before me a letter of Dismissal from the Episcopate thereof, I hereby approve him as a clergyman in regular standing, and receive him
as a Presbyterian of the Diocese of New York.

Geo. F. Onderdonk,
Bishop of New York.

New York, September 24. 1844.
