

Albany November 21

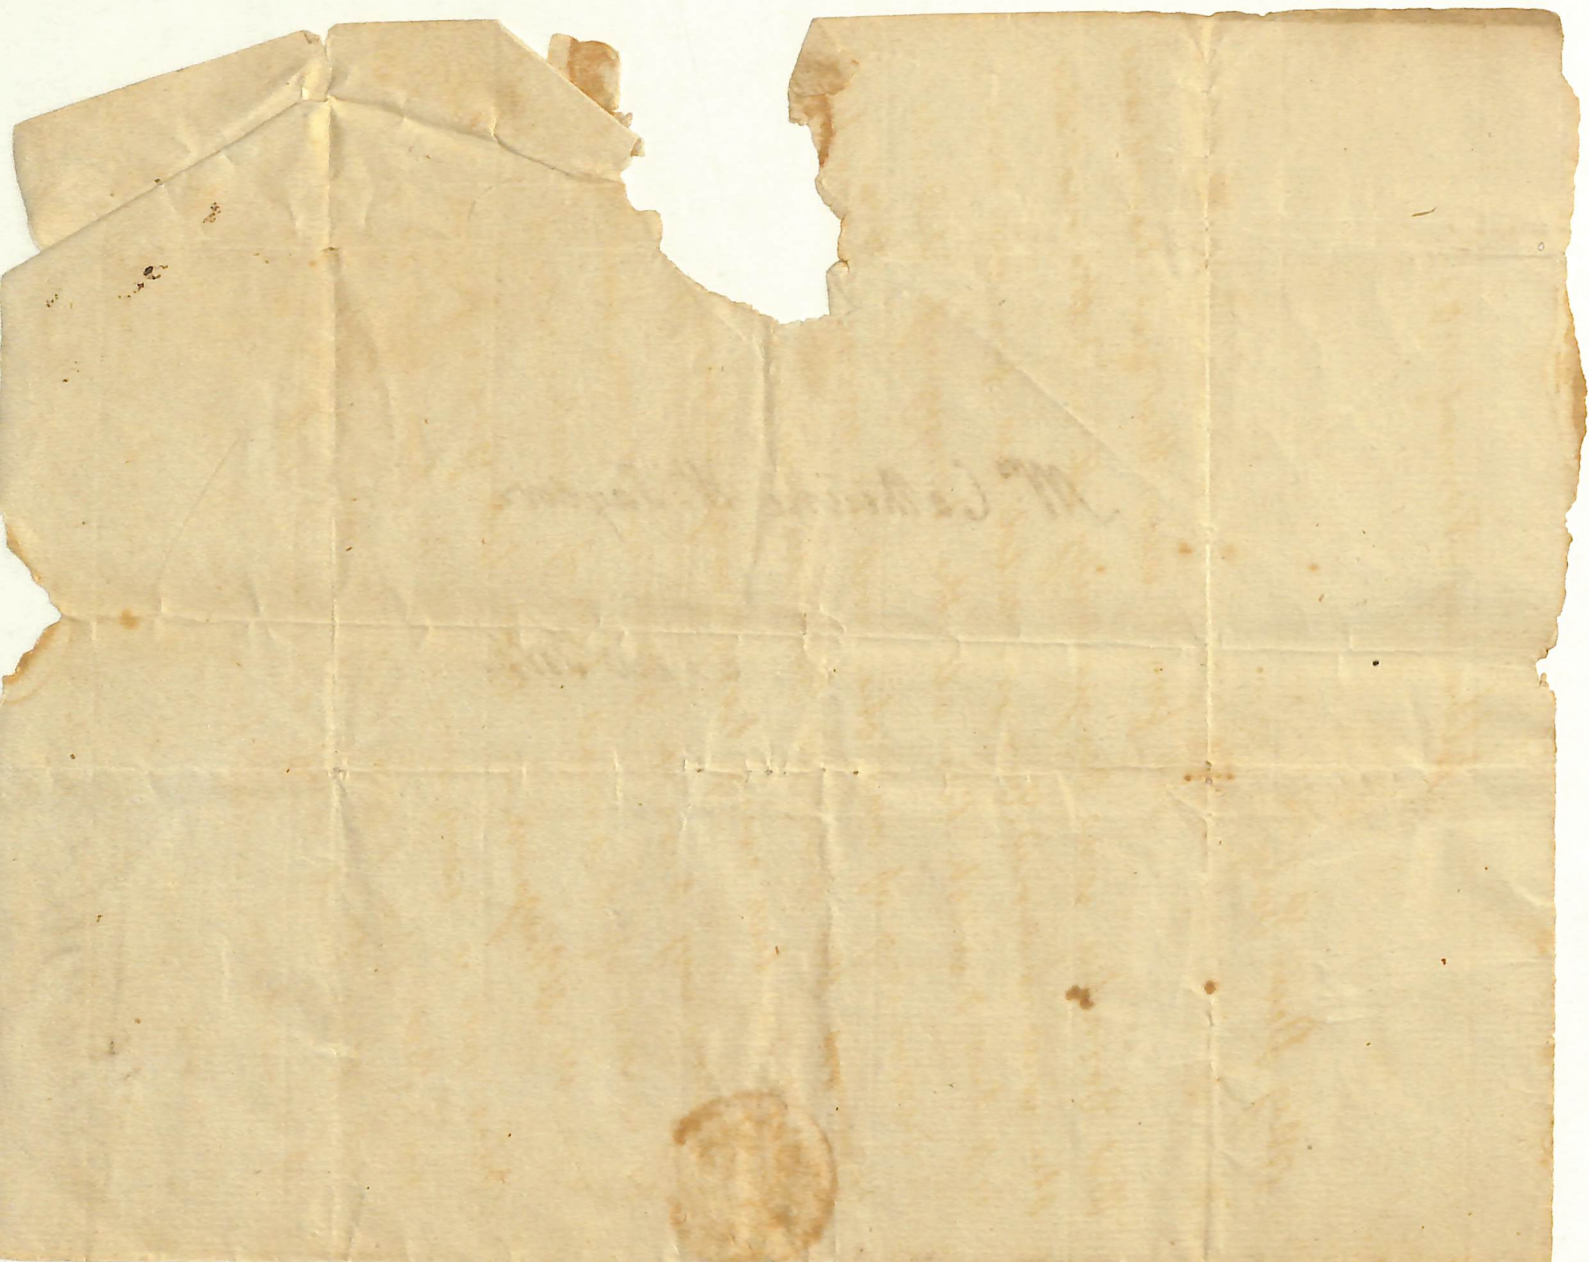

My Dear Baby

The first news that we heard was that Cornelia was dangerously ill and the next that she was married. Congratulate her for me and tell her I wish her all the happiness that she is deserving of and she will be more so ^{than} one half ~~than one~~ the married Couples can boast of - as to Genet he has every happiness already in prospect. Give my love to your mamma and by her to except of a small box of rusk which I send by Mr. McKeown - that tell your papa 'Patty' and that she hopes that he may be able to the Docks an other heat next spring - tell him I have heard of a certain cure for his Corns - there was a man come here that could hardly stand he had it so bad in his back and knee he was told by some person to get a brags bound to wear round his waist and round his knee he did so and was cured once that it has been tried by others and they have found great benefit from perhaps if you please was to try it might be of service to him also tell Cornelia she must not think that I have forgot the sturgeon it has not been in my power to get it - it is out of season give my love to your mamma please and the children tell pretty and Maria that James sends him a kiss and that he means to do excuse this it is wrote in great haste accept my Best wishes yours affectionately

E. Bloodgood

M^{rs} Catherine W. Taylor

New York

See Memorandum

to be written up by the