

New York 28 West 22nd St
 December 31st 1891

Dear Maud.

We were very glad to get Katie's letter on Tuesday saying you had received the parcel by express all right. but sorry to hear you still had a bad cold. you will have to take care of it for there is so much of the Grippe going about now. I have enclosed a line to Joe with a check for $46.15. with a little list of the things he had paid out for us. we have had very unpleasant weather this last month. Yesterday and today is more like winter and I am glad of it for I feel Much better when it is clear and cold. Mr Meyer Grinnell is much better and able to go to his business, but does not feel very strong, I am much better than I was it took me some time to get over the shock from my fall and Mrs Catharine will not let me go out alone. I have been out a short distance the last two days, and tomorrow we are to lunch at Mrs Farber's, She would like to have us for dinner but we cannot go any where in the evening for by night time I am tired and want to keep quiet and go to bed early.

I had not heard of the death of Mrs Barker having seen learned from, in last Saturday Angus said they were turned out and the horses and carriages that were all. I hope you will all have a pleasant New Year and hope will this winter. It seems so strange to me not to write to Robert or get his letters for he was always so particular about writing and wrote such nice letters and told a great deal in them. I cannot tell you how I feel of thinking of the cottage without him, but I have no doubt feel much happier when I see him, free from pain and sickness, remember me to all the household and tell Dottie we thank her very much for her nice letter and Yours, Sarah Irving
