

My Dear Daughter

Wee are now at the Croton house just a going to Dinner. Wee went down to Mr Beckman, Last Saturday In Order to meet your brother with his Bride they came their on Friday afternoon were both well and are now here with us all in high spirits your Mama and I are also pretty well. Cousin Stephen went with the Major to New York and returned with his Uncle and Aunt to the Mills, your Sister Beckman was not well enough to accompany Pierre to New York and could not well come up with us here. I suppose Pierre will write to you, his little all seems to be of a lovely Condescending disposition I dare say will be pleasing to your Mama who is very fond of her her Tom will like Sister Mamas. There fore we must make much of her. your Sister Catharine is in New York with Cousin Theodorus, he is now alone at home with Corla and Mr. W. W. W.
& Mother with the baby are gone to Newmill for us, for a visit We have not heard from the General since he left us, how long Pierre will stay with us at Poughkeepsie I cannot say he is just gone to take a walk with his all. Our Love to you and Brother & Sister with Cousin Nancy. Am your affectionate Father Burr Van Cortlandt
