

My dear Emma -

I was prepared to come & bid you good bye this afternoon, but David thinks it certainly will rain & my brother Hamilton has the carriage out of town - if your husband should not be well enough to go to-morrow, I shall certainly see you again if I do not, except my earnest wishes for your this happy and safe return to your prairie home. Y^r. affectionate

Corinne Faring
