Dear Sir

you will be good enough to pardon me for not answering your request sooner, I recd. your letter in Court time with a bundle of other papers, & had it sometime before I knew it or opened it, - had I have known its come I would have sent you some word. respecting the same from Court

I have now got through the press of business and am at liberty to give you a statement - as you see above there was real difficulties to summon in this town as well as in many others, my Republican friends reported my naming Mr. J. Clinton as Governor, I am sure that the

Portsmouth Town

The Nomination is a regular one such as we have always contended for and thought ourselves in duty bound to support, then I was told he is No Republican, see the accounts in the public prints, I am sure the public prints I was in the habit of reading, and was well satisfied that instead of being articles of truth I found them vehicles of slander, my friends then determined to have me displeased. as soon as the Council met

But I determined to ^{do} as I thought best, for I would not believe that Mr. Clinton was a Tory, or any of the Name belonging to that family I told them that the Name of Clinton was accursed every friend to his Country, — with sentiments of respect — I am yours

J. Van Bortland Esquire

Elijah Bradford.
