

Palmer. Israel. Bernal Tulam
7 Jan. 1768. Served in French war former of Pompey in Connecticut.
affairs with wolf

In 1755' convention of governors determined on their independent expeditions Fort Duquesne by Sault Braddock — Fort Majors & Fortenac In Shirley Crown Land In War Island. ^{Major from} Palmer with Connecticut served in the latter Palmer commanded one of the Regt.

75
18
In 1757 raised to rank of Major by the Connecticut Legislature

In 1758 three expeditions
Rouletting. Fort Duquesne. Crown Point.

taken prisoner by the Indians tied to a stake and from thence by the French perhaps these were exchanged after the capture of Fort Fortenac.

1759 Palnam at Litchfield served under Amherst's army who secured Fort Mifflin & Crown Point.

1760 served under Amherst's army
Oriskany

1762 served in an armament's army
Hudson

1763 served as Colonel of Connecticut
Regt. in campaign against the Indians

1764 Committee's army's campaign
Subsequently was officer at Boston Simultaneously known to Lord Sarg. Lord
Percy & then others

He was said an army of 5000 volunteers might march upon the aid of ~~some~~
the Glorious to the others

Butler said Butler, if they advanced bravely & paid them way they they attempted to force the American women would knock them on the head with their ladies.

19 April 1775 slunk in the field when he heard of the battle of Lexington. Left his platoon on the ground and rode off to the field of action without changing his dress.

21 April

21 attended council of war at Cambridge. Summoned back by the Assembly of Connecticut (then in session, to consult on undisciplined campaign and Committee of Burg's Genl. rel- to campaign leaving orders for troops to follow him back on march. Took room on the march.

21 May Genl. would march upon Genl. & command in chief of troops of Mass. The order given by the Genl.
the Genl. of other officers, within the province. Genl. Palmer first in rank among the officers of Council the stronghold of his troops in an advanced position at Hudson's Fort under the examined with command - there were on the left wing of the wing under brig five thousand at Roxbury affair of Breckinridge

Mortons passed over Peabody

while double force was making Pittman return to Cambridge for recruits

