Will Mr. Mersereau please pay to send him it and off $50 - who is cause of this demand as I Stapleton, S. I., Sept. 16th 1898

Mr A. D. Irving

Dear Sir,

In answer to yours of the 15th inst. I will say this balance is on bill for Extras and balance on Old House Contract, as the work in New Addition as been passed as correct by Mr Mersereau and paid for by Mr Hunter to the last cent.
All of the work in New Addition was done according to Specifications and according to Mr A. D. Irving's instructions, for instance the Dining Room, the Specifications call for wood work to be white with gloss, than Mr A. D. Irving gave orders to painted cream color and flat, also his bed room.
If Mr Mersereau made mistake I do not think it is fair that I should be made pay for it.
Respectfully Yours.
Julius L. Fouvy.
