

Genoa 10th Novbr 1834,

Dear Sir,

As you express a desire to see the Original Documents of Christopher Columbus which are deposited at the Municipality of this City, with the Marble Monument raised in honor of that Great Man,

I must beg your acceptance of the accompanying Book which contains a true copy of all the above Documents, Say, The Columbus American Diplomatic Letters, with the Fac Simile of some Autograph Letters, Written by him, a Sketch of his foot of Arm, or Seal, and a Drawing of his Bust.

Should this Work not have reached before now your Learned Uncle Washington Irving Esq. who has wrote such a Splendid History on Columbus, perhaps it might be interesting to him to peruse it.

When your highly admired Uncle was in Genoa in the year 1804 or 1805 or there about I had the honor to see him in company of Mr. Storm or Mrs. Bird who is still sojourning in this Place, in company of some of her Daughters.

I remain,

Dear Sir,

SHR

your most Obedt servant,
John Walsh

To Sanders Irvine Esq.

January 10th, 1834

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th inst. in relation to the documents of the American Revolution which are deposited at the Library of Congress. I have the honor to inform you that the documents of the American Revolution which are deposited at the Library of Congress are now being arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the persons to whom they relate. I have the honor to inform you that the documents of the American Revolution which are deposited at the Library of Congress are now being arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the persons to whom they relate.

I have the honor to inform you that the documents of the American Revolution which are deposited at the Library of Congress are now being arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the persons to whom they relate. I have the honor to inform you that the documents of the American Revolution which are deposited at the Library of Congress are now being arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the persons to whom they relate.

I have the honor to inform you that the documents of the American Revolution which are deposited at the Library of Congress are now being arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the persons to whom they relate. I have the honor to inform you that the documents of the American Revolution which are deposited at the Library of Congress are now being arranged in alphabetical order of the names of the persons to whom they relate.

661197

Sanders Juvenile, Log 3

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, appearing in the lower left quadrant of the page. The text is faint and partially obscured by water damage.