

Painting &c, nearly concluded in doors, Mr. Farley surprised me in a cap &c in consequence of a unseasonable pain in the face. Tell you that I shall be delighted to see you, wh. my dear Anne you should know this too well to require repetition, and I am looking forward to Saturday week as the moment of happiness. you never fail when you have once fixed a day, therefore I shall feel mortified if you resume your inconsistency for me. Don't look charmingly every day will improve it & by the time you come to me, it will be worthy even of your approbation, therefore do not fail. Saint flourishes as I make no doubt with Pink, Mr. Campbell is so far satisfied but he will ere long be restless for your arrival.
James Craig hurries me unconscionably and I have only time to desire our kind ~~and remembrance~~ remembrance to Mr. M. & to beg you will write for mail very soon.

God bless you my dear friend Yrs most affectly
