My dear Will

This business manied, may have caused rather neglect - in writing have certainly been in flurry and hurry we see Honey Moon is now about endeavour by the next of give you something more acc.
I don't say you have had long acc. of my wedding & so on. I gave you myself, a few lines, just after it. and have we since been moving about Emily's Aunt is with us, and we have been jamming about at the Springs Lebanon, Catskill, West-Point &c. but a few days since been settled in this my snug little place

We are now very busy, getting it in trim.
It is looking very neat and pretty, and my greatest wish is that you could take a peep at us - Theodore Sarah, together with Father

Theodore & Father are going wintering, and I am trying off for them -

I trust remain with Mother, the latter part of the, on a visit to Baltimore also to have Sarah with during the next winter - plenty of cold weather - plenty of high riding &c. and to cap all, plenty of Ale to drink - When you get back you know, you shall have as much as you may want - of all -

Amanda is a little unwell to day now in bed close by me.

She tells me very particularly to send her love to you, and to say that she hopes it will not be long before you will write us -

Pr
may find some add number of your Ac
by that time!

Miss Matilda Sw daughter, across the river few weeks since, to the (of Greenwich St. memory) -

Saw Ruth Schuyler at Lebanon She enquired after you - looked very pretty - Fanny Goodhue was there, looked as you last saw her Good bye, my dear Will. Keep up a good heart - &c

As ever most Affectionately
