

My Dear Ann

Presuming on the kindness so frequently evidenced towards me, I have come with an intention to pass a few days with you previous to my going to the Springs. — as I have just through the same affliction you have so recently experienced, I earnestly request you will have the candor to mention it, should my Society be any restraint to your respected Mother or yourself — your sincere friend

My dear Sir
I have the pleasure to inform you that the intention to have a few days with you is now a day fixed to the 10th of the month next through the same office as you have previously informed, I sincerely trust you will have the honor to receive it and possibly be my guest and to your satisfaction
I am, Sir, your obedient servant
Margaret Simpson
