

This fine evening tempted me to walk out, & I did not receive your note until this instant, My dear Mrs N.
Julia has not finished the second vol: but as she will have company & not be able to read this evg she lends it you - she will be much obliged to you for
it. so soon as you have perused it as she will be "wicked & wickedly enough" to read it after church tomorrow. ~~and then you~~ ~~send it back to her~~

~~now~~ - I will send you the third early to-morrow morning Eliza is now engaged with it
Yours in great haste
& with all sincerity

Anne W
