

My dear Emma.

You are now called upon to fulfil your promise and attend our second party. The 24.
Ann & Mary will stop for you to morrow afternoon, to come up & stay with us the night before the party to help us fix & make matters.
The rest of the girls are coming out on Wednesday

Monday, / the day of the party / but we cannot think of being able to give you without you. The party will be a little larger than it was before, but very little. You must certainly be ready to answer afternoon after dinner, I will not be so true myself. but I suppose you will not be afraid to come with Uncle & I don't Do not forget you. 'Sheep do not' as you are all going to stay until Thursd.
Tell Charles & George I expect them both on Wed.

Monday afternoon, by five o'clock.

Adieu. you must certainly if come, or else I shall be quite angry with you.
Chas. is coming up with the girls on Wednesday morning.

Good bye. Do not fail, to come.
I believe are yours truly

May C. Pillsbury

Monday Evening.
