

Verplank's Point 7th Decr - 1785

Gentlemen

I understand Mr. Barber is to be in this county soon and as my business with him will take a considerable time I am induced to offer my service to procure the necessary Vouchers of the Dammage done on this farm.

I flatter myself that my knowledge in public accounts with the assistance of your advice will render me equal to that task.

Should my service be acceptable I will transact the Business on as low a %^o as you shall think right, or any other compensation that shall be by your thought equal to the service.

I am Gent^l with Respect
Your Obedient Servant
Sampson Dykman
