

37-39 LIBERTY STREET

NEW YORK , February 20, 1902

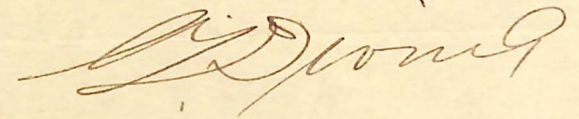

W. H. Mersereau, Esq.,

No. 32 Broadway, New York.

Dear Sir:-

The enclosed instructions were sent to the man who cleaned the mantel, by Mrs. Irving; when I got home I found that he had not followed them at all, but had attempted to clean all of the large mantel. I left word that he was to do nothing more. This is very unsatisfactory to me. Please keep the enclosure.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "J. D. Irving", written in dark ink.

NEW YORK, February 20, 1903

35 LIBERTY STREET

W. H. Metcalf, Esq.,
No. 32 Broadway, New York.

Dear Sir:-

The enclosed instructions were sent to the man who cleaned the mantle by Mrs. Irving; when I got home I found that he had not followed them at all, but had attempted to clean all of the large mantle. I left word that he was to do nothing more. This is very unsatisfactory to me. Please keep the enclosure.

Yours truly,