~~The entrance of King Francis I. of France~~ an account of —

The entrance of Francis, King of France, into Guadalajara. and the hospitality that he received from the Duke Don Diego

It does not belong to this history to ~~relate~~ ^{recount} the battle of Pavia, which the Emperor gained and in which the King of France was made prisoner! and therefore we only ^{briefly} relate in this chapter of the entrance of the King of France into Guadalajara, the reception of the city, the feasts, and the honourable hospitality he found in the house of the Duke Don Diego.

Francis King of France arrived in Guadalajara on the 10th of August 1525 on his way to Madrid. In his suite was Señor Hernando de Alarcón. Marques de la Vala Licáñez with a company of infantry under the command of Captain Bernardo de Siqueros, son of Hernan Beltham de Anguian, native of Guadalajara, who was in the battle where the King was conquered and Gregorio de Segura his standard bearer, native of the same city. There was also in the Grand of the King Gomez Suarez de Figueroa, ~~and~~ brother of Captain Hernando de Siquis -
