 Dear Sir

I was very sorry to hear of the absence of being your when you was last in this city. When you please to inform of your want of the money which I owe you, I will be glad to pay it. As my part of it, and inform me who shall it to, or the interest of your hands not want the amount of it. It would be more agreeable to me to pay the principal in half a year than to pay you to let me know by the first of the month. As I have no more in my pocket I am, Sir, your obedient servant
