

New York June 17th (84)

Dear Nancy

I have shipped by the sloop James Lawrence for Richd. Woots one bale of Carpeting. One piece of oil cloth and 110 lbs of hair.

Since you were here hair has risen four cents pr lb. I ascertained this fact by inquiring at a dozen places.

The mangle I cannot get for less than $85. - I think it entirely too much, I offered 75 - but he would not take it.

There are no rocking chairs to be had except - yellow figured ones

The matts cost more than I think myself justified in giving $3.00 per piece.

The three last articles will be a wagon load and if you think proper to give the prices for them we will send them up. I think The mangle can be got for 75 -
but it cannot be sent this week.

I have paid away as follows

W. W. Chester for Oil cloth as p ^r bid	$ 83.18
Gardiner for packing	1.50
G. P. & J Gratacap for harness p ^r bid	43.66
B. Hulme for Coach + shoes	1.62

$ 128.96

Mr Lee for Carriage ————— 1.50

130.46

June 7th Delivered to Mr Lee ————— 269.54

$ 400.00

I shall go home either on with many kind wishes for you & yours welfare, in haste I remain Your

Affectionate Brother
