My dear Emma -

Charles told me on Friday that you were in the City but I was constantly engaged in Court until late on Saturday Night. Yesterday, I thought I would certainly see you; But I was so much indisposed that I could not leave the House. To day, I am better, but again very in Court. And, this afternoon if possible, I start for Foston. If I do not go, I will come to see you, this Evening, and if I do I will return in a few days - I am sorry, My dear Emma, that I must postpone my welcome; and am also sorry, that my wife is not

him - But, in a few days, if not this Evening, we will meet; and I will bring with me my wife's love for you -

I am, in great haste -

Your affectionate brother

O Hoffman
