

James Cooper

Savannah. Sept. 23rd 1818

Dear Sir

I have the honor to receive your communication of the 18th inst. yesterday and accept with pleasure the appointment, I beg you to receive my thanks for your polite attention to my request. I am at present so occupied with workmen and business here having but just moved into my new house as to render it somewhat uncertain whether I can go to Town before the 5th but I will endeavor to be equipt by that time and ready to attend to your orders. I have just heard that the parade on the 5th will be at Uncle's hills this is within two miles of my house which I beg you will make your own during your centinence in this part of the County I can give you aids a few a piece without inconvenience and trust you will not hesitate to bring them along -

I am Sir very Respectfully
Yours

James Cooper
