

Wm Alexander to R. Peters 1754

N^o 652, Dear Sir,

I think I told you last Winter of a Gent^l we have here, very extraordinary for teaching writing in a short time in great perfection, Tib M^r Clifington, who is the bearer of this, he intends to stay at Philadelphia this Winter if he meets with Encouragement, and has asked of me to recommend him to some Gent^l there, I know of none more proper than M^r Peters and I hope he'll pardon the Liberty I take in doing so, as he is a promoter of any every thing of Public use. The specimens M^r Clifington will shew you sufficiently say what he can do, some of them are, ^{so} surprising that they almost want a Voucher to make the honesty of them believed, most of those he has taught here I am acquainted with, and know that their Specimens were taken very impartially. I am

Dⁿ Sir
your Most Humble serv^t
W^m Alexander

New York - }
Sept. 16. 1754 }

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page, including the words "My dear" and "I am".

To

Richard Peters Esq^r

for M. Clapington

Philadelphia

Dec 16 1754