

My dear Mrs Nicholas

I am much obliged, for your kindness in securing a woman for me in Ellen's place, I was just thinking what I should do, when she left, but concluded it not best to be uneasy - as in all times and seasons, the "Lord will provide."

Ellen does not leave me until the first of April, but I would like when convenient, to see the woman, and I trust she may meet my wishes.

We are quite well, Susan, & Miss Cornwall are taking with Mrs Hobbs, Mr Dole enjoying his evening at home, Best love to Mr & Mrs Hinton, to pay my promised visit soon,

In haste your friend

Lucie Deane
