

Chandon S^r

Mersey Manor.

My dear General,

Mr. McLane has just rec^d the enclosed letter and bill of lading of a hoghead of Madeira wine shipped in the Ship Comet, Thomas Arncliffe master, at Madeira on the 10 October, & which ship is ~~probably~~ now in port. & Mr. McLane has applied for a treasury order for the delivery of the wine.

A butt of Sherry was likewise shipped on the 21 October at Cadiz on board the Ship Lgham, Joseph a Turner master, ^{and this ship may be daily expected.} Will you have the kindness to be about getting these wines ~~at~~ as soon as possible, that the diplomatic cellar may be duly stocked.
Return the enclosed letter when you have done with it, and likewise the ~~letter~~ note of our Packhouse about my books, that it may be entered in the letter book.

Very truly Yours
W. Irving
