

Capt Saml Adams

Dec 27. 1834

Dear Sir

I have not yet got the money for Esqr McBurney, I sent the boy to a friend to get it, but if he does not get it, you will confer a great favour on your friend by taking up my note this evening, and if you will pay Esqr McBurney and take up my note, (providing the boy does not get the money) I will pay you one Dollar extra for your trouble and the great favour you will confer on your friend, if it is not paid this evening it will be Lude, and friend McBurney will lose all confidence in me do try and oblige your friend and it will not be forgotten, please send word back, or send a line back by the boy whether it will be settled this evening, or not Remember it shall be paid to you again as soon as the taxes is collected

Yours Truly

Saml. R. Moleatt

P.S. I left a note of Sixteen Dollars in Esqr McBurney's hands for collection and if he gets it soon till him he may hand the money to you

S.R.M.
