

Dr. Jon Pierre

Wee came here the next day (after leaving Mr Beckman) about 5 o'clock in the afternoon without coming to anchor once the whole passage. Wee left Mr Beckmans after breakfast, dined that day for the horse race at Hong Kong, drank Tea at New Winson, and so on next morning we were at Manor of Livingston and at 5 o'clock were here at Albany where Mr Mayor soon heard of us and came down to the vessel glad to see us his Carriage followed him which took us up to Mr Renbelaers. All was joy and gladness to see us so well there we were all very hearty in going up and as I write this to let you and Catey hear from us as soon as I can so shall expect to hear from you the first post after you receive this.

I wrote you from Mr Beckmans before I left that this with all our respects to you and Catey for wishing you health and happiness Am your affectionate Father Pierre Van Corlandt
