

State of New York

General Orders

Head Quarters Albany July 10. 1814

Salmon Order of the 33rd Regiment of Infantry having been promoted to the Office of Lieutenant Colonel to preserve his Rank in said Regiment and there being the complement of Field Officers already attached to said Regiment namely Colonel Hobby, Lieut. Col. Davis & Major Baker, the said Salmon Order will continue a supernumerary Officer until a command shall be assigned him by a future General Order

By Order of the Commander in Chief Anthony Lamb

Adj. de Camp.

General Order
Feb. 10 - 1814 -
Instructing Salmon Order

General Order

These General Orders of the 22d Regiment of Infantry being furnished to the Office of Adjutant General to preserve his rank in the documents and there being the importance of these orders correctly attached to the documents Robert Webb, Secy. of the Adjutant Major the said Robert Webb will continue to superintend the office with a command that he be assigned with in a future General Order

By Order of the Adjutant General
John C. Smith
Adjutant General

Robert Webb
Secy. of the Adjutant Major the said Robert Webb will continue to superintend the office with a command that he be assigned with in a future General Order