My Dear Child

I was too much indisposed to answer your last letter, on Saturday night I sustained a second & very severe Attack of the Gout in my stomach, and tho I have now little pain, I am very weak and confined to my bed. —

Special bail was entered at the time I ought to be —

The bearer goes to New York to bring up your sister Catherine, as it is problematical if they can proceed on a sled much further than your House, I must beg you if they cannot not, either to let Anthony have your Coach or if it is in order and sufficiently strong for the Journey or if not, to procure a waggon with a seat spring seat, and to purchase some coarse linen for a cover, Anthony can get rope poles and make an
