Yearbook Dedication

Mrs. Woltz,

The 1980-81 Piketonian has been dedicated to you by the Yearbook Staff. Knowing you has given all of us fond memories that we'll always treasure. Your successful teaching has been a great influence on us and will carry us on into the future. We wish to thank you for all that you have done for us at Piketon High School.

We miss you!

Sincerely,

1980-81 Yearbook Staff

*Come on and ride with me,
There's so much left out there
to see.
Maybe we won't be going out there,
And some of us don't have much
care . . .*

Yes there was a time
When a friend would say to me,
"Won't ya give me a lift down the road away there's someone I'd like
to see —
'That ole Pike Town you know where it is, just beyond Pike Hill Down around the corner before you get to the lumber mill —
Yesterday, Yesterday . . .

*Stagecoach, carry me away,
Take me to my memories of
yesterday.*

*I can hear your reins a cracking
On the horse's dusty back;
And I'm looking through the window seeing men working on the railroad track.*

Yesterday, Yesterday . . .

Stagecoach, carry me away
Take me to my memories of
yesterday.

Yesterday, Yesterday . . .

Homecoming

THE 1980 P.H.S. HOMECOMING HOEDOWN WAS A FOOT STOMPIN' SUCCESS

Horses were tethered in the parking lot, quietly chewing their oats, while their riders were inside at the saloon gulping down sarsaparilla, putting away a few cold Cokes, or promenading a pretty gal 'round the dance floor and dodging hay bales at the same time. There were no fights, no "Necktie Parties," and all who came agreed that they had a "rootin' tootin' time" as they mounted up to ride back to their homesteads.

Hoedown!

ROUGH STUFF

BEWARE: PIKETON'S PRIDE WILL RETURN!

Piketon's pride returned to do battle upon the field of honor, again under the generalship of Ron Hinton.

Hinton guided his troops through the trials, tribulations, and heart-breaks of winning, and losing, to end this year's campaign with a solid third place in the SVC.

Let the other teams beware; the Redstreaks will return next year, rested, refreshed, and ready to tap dance upon their enemies' helmets.

Tired and overworked, is the look these players give, while taking advantage of a time out.

Dale Dennis looks for help while dribbling around a defensive player.

Faces of disgust seem to show how these lonely bench-warmers feel as they face another loss.

For the first-year Freshman Coach, Dave Stockham, and his team the 80-81 basketball season was full of thrills and excitement. Never before had a Freshman coach led his team to the SVC Basketball Championship as well as the runner-up position in the SVC Freshman Tournament. For the coach, cheerleaders, fans, and most of all, the players, this season will be one to remember. Congratulations!

Being a Redstreak cheerleader is no easy task. To learn their trade the Varsity and Reserve squads spent a week during the summer at Rio Grande College. While there, they received many honors including the coveted spirit stick. In addition to their cheering duties, which include making hoops, fixing Gatorade, making signs and attending all the games, they found time to participate in the cheerleading competition at Paint Valley. Sandy Lindsay took 2nd place in her Senior Division.

Graduation Day

*Today we'll start a new life
And we'll say our last goodbyes
To all the friends we've grown to love
With whom we've laughed and cried.*

*Remembering the fun and laughter,
The problems and the fears,
And watching all our memories grow
Throughout our high school years.*

*The memories of the dances
And the new friends that we've met,
Vacations, teachers, talking
And exams we'd rather forget.*

*Yes, high school days are precious
but brief,
Where all your dreams come true;
It is not the end, but the beginning
Of a life we'll start anew.*

With this year's "in-scene" being western we thought it would be appropriate to carry out a western theme in this year's Pitkeonion. It is our hope that it will keep good memories of the 1980-81 school year for everyone.

We would like to thank Miss Rapp for her guidance and help, Larry Kraus our publisher's representative, Kelly West for keeping our financial books in order, Paul Leist and Mr. Allison for taking pictures, Beverly Studios for taking class pictures and being available for activity pictures, and a BIG thank you to our advertisers. Thanks to the Pitkeonion staff members for their contributions to the success of this book.

And, finally, a big thanks to the student body, teachers, and staff for making this book a memorable one!
