DEDICATION

The 1982 Piketonian staff dedicates the 1982 Piketonian to an individual who has dedicated much of his time to the students at Piketon High School.

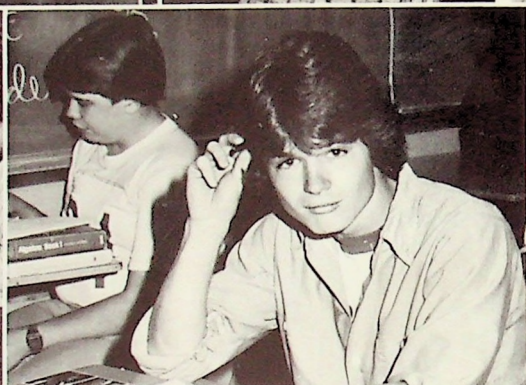

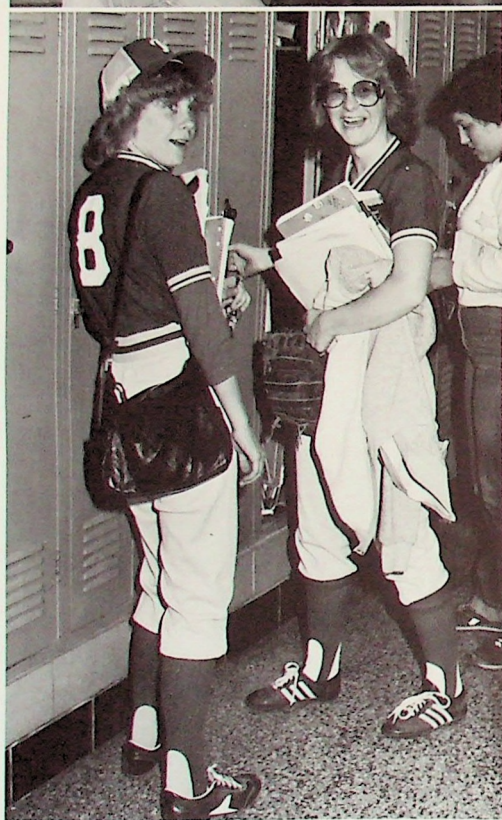

Through the years, Mr. Allison has supported the students at Piketon, attended athletic events and school activities, and made sure everything runs smoothly around school.

For this, we give our deepest gratitude and finest regards.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Advisor Joye Zimmerman

In the opinion of the members of the yearbook staff, the Student Council is trying to take over the running of Piketon High School. They hold secret trysts Wednesdays, third period, to discuss their militant plans of ousting RBA and establishing a martial law similar to the one which Poland is now experiencing. According to our sources, Advisor Joye Zimmerman is masterminding the operation in which Doug McRoberts will move into RBA's office, Stephanie Anderson will occupy Miss Sunshine's seat, Lori Vulgamore will take over Mr. Shively's duties, and Jany Higgins will replace her mother as treasurer. The price of lunches will be hiked up by as much as 500%, and corporal punishment will be inflicted as often as possible. Yes, if the Student Council gets its way, the new auditorium may soon be the site of firing squads and guillotine-style executions.

Carol Rice, Doug McRoberts, Jany Higgins, Lola Hannah, Sheila Roberts, Wanda Willis, Sharon Brown, Sandy Hay, Billy Stone, Sheila Holsinger, Jimmy Lloyd, Stephanie Anderson, Rhonda Mustard, Lisa Nier, Lori Vulgamore, David Current, Melissa Hurless, Elizabeth Bumgardner, David Frederick, John Dixon, Greg Holdren, Missy Brodess, Tammy Clemmons.
