Flecher Christian
son of Edwin "
came from Manx
The ~~isle~~ of Man-Flecher, at a propriate time left, to England.
Flecher had a dream
of being the capt.
of his own.

While training, he Countess
fall in love ~~X~~ Barbara Ward. Time went on - Fletcher gave him
this necklace to present to Countess Barbara as an agreement of marrige

A few weeks later, he recieved papers to study in Capt. Bluej-

This capt was a very mean man- to the point of being crazy.

At that time Fletcher ran the mutiny. They set Bligh in a side in a row boat and set off. He had enough food and water, to last till another vessel.

Fletcher - now Capt.
went of course.
Pitcairn, was one
Island not claimed
nor was it on the
maps - every-where.
The natives
were friendly and
welcomed the men

a shore. Fletcher
feeling guilty for
what he had done,
turned to a beautiful
native - Mia Matie"
He married her in
native custom.
The days went by Knowing no one

could ever find them
Fletcher so ridden
with guilt sought
or sail to England
He felt what he had done would be cured
the proper thing.
When he arrived, he emedately

to jail - for Mutiny.
Trial began and
everyone taking Bligh
side - was guilty.
He agree - rather than
death, to find an
new country or die
at sea,

As he walked waited
Countess Barbara,
approach him and
angerly gave back
neckless on would
never set eyes on him again.

Now, heres more
news. Fletcher-

thow - thought to
go back to pitcarn
to his Mia Meté.
Came here - USA.
He settled in West Virginia. He
married Caroline.
who gave birth
to Clifton Christian

who gave birth

Harry = Virginia -

gave birth to my

dad Edwin Westby

who married Mary

3 sons Harrold

Clifert Chaustian, Edwin

Fleche & Thomas

Warrin - 2 girls

Carole Ann +
Barbara Mae. thru
the years the necklace was handed
son - to son - but
twist of fate, my
dad gave me the necklace. Because he knew I'd never sell it and put it an apropriate part of history –

Fletcher Christian was buried in West Virginia – that only the Christian

Kahn know exactly where it is.

I gave this

treature - from my

dad - to our

Historic Building

Dad was right

my great-great grand

fathers and

Fletcher Christian
are very proud!

Please enjoy!
